Sir George Saunders, Proxy for the Duke of Richmond (lately recovered from the Sickness of the Small-Pox) going Single; his Grace having had the Honour of Knighthood conferred on him by the Great Master at the Sovereign's Command.

Edward Younge, Esq; Register of the Order, habited in a Mantle like to that of the Prebendaries, having under it a Surcoat like to that of the Esquires, and on his Breast hanging to a Gold Chain, an Escocheon, enamelled on a Field Azure, three Imperial Crowns Or, the Arms of the Order, having in the Center the Representation of a Book bound Gules, the Leaves Or, and carrying the Statutes of the Order, covered with red Velvet, with the Arms of the Order embossed thereon with Gold, having on his Right Hand Edward Montagu, Esq; Secretary of the Order, in the like Mantle and Surcoat, wearing in like Manner his Escochoen being enamelled with the Arms of the Order, having in the Center two Pens placed Salterwise; and on his Left Hand Edmund Sawyer, Esq; the Gentleman-Usher of the Order, in the like Mantle and Surcoat, and having at a Golden Chain an Escocheon enamelled with the Arms of the Order hanging upon his Breast, and carrying in his Right Hand the Scarlet Rod surmounted with three Imperial Crowns, all three of them carrying their red Caps, or Bonnets, in their Hands.

John Anstis, Esq; Garter Principal King of Arms in his Tabart over a white Surcoat, and with his Collar and the Badge of his Office upon his Breast hanging to a Gold Chain, with his Hat in his Hand, having on his Right

Right Hand John Anſtis, Junior, the Genealogiſt of the Order, habited in a Mantle and Surcoat like to the other Officers, and wearing pendent to a Golden Chain an Eſcocheon enamelled with the Arms of the Order, with the Cyphers or Letters G enterlaced in the Center, and on his Left Hand Grey Longueville, Eſqs Bath King of Arms in the like Mantle and Surcoat, having on his Breaſt hanging to a Gold Chain, about his Neck, the Eſcocheon of the Arms of the Order empaling thoſe of the Sovereign, ſurmounted with an Imperial Crown, and carrying the white Rod or Scepter in his Right Hand, the two latter having their red Caps or Bonnets in their Hands.

The Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter Dean of Weſtminſter, and Dean of this Order, in his Mantle and Surcoat, like to the Companions, and with the Badge of the Order pendent to a red Ribbon, carrrying the Forms of the Oaths, and Admonitions to be given to the Knights and Proxies fairly engroſs'd upon Vellom.

The Great Maſter in his full Habit, and with the Collar of Gold, compoſed of ſeveral Imperial Crowns, tyed or linked with Knots of Gold, repreſenting the white Laces mentioned in the antient Ceremonials of conferring the Knighthood of the Bath, weighing thirty Ounces Troy Weight, having the Badge, or Symbol of the Order thereto pendent, his Grace being covered with the white Hat adorned with a Plume of white Feathers.

Sir Andrew Fountaine, Proxy for Prince William, went therefore covered with his Hat in this Proceſſion, carrying the Mantle upon his Right Arm.

In this Form they proceeded to the Chappel of Henry VII. at the Eaſt End of the Abbey of Weſtminſter.

The Twelve Alms-Men there entered two and two, and coming to the Middle of the Choir, did altogether in a Body, make their joint and low Reverences to the Altar, and turning about, then made their Obeiſances to the Sovereign's Stall, and dividing themſelves ſtood on each Side in a Row down from the Rails of the Altar.

The Meſſenger of the Order, in like Manner, and ſtood below the Alms-Men.

The Eſquires having made a ſhort Stand at the Door, while the Alms-Men and Meſſengers thus placed themſelves, entered three and three, and being in a Body, made the like Reverences together in the Middle of the Choir, and ſtood before their reſpective Seats, which were underneath the Stalls of their Knights.

The Prebendaries of the Church of Weſtminſter two and two in the ſame Manner, placing themſelves within the Rails of the Altar to aſſiſt at Divine Service.

The Purſuivants, Heralds, and the Provincial Kings of Arms, likewiſe entered, and were permitted to ſtand before the Forms, under Prince William's Stall, who had Commands given them by the Great Maſter to take eſpecial Care to ſhew the Knights their reſpective Banners upon their Entries

The two Knights in the loweſt Stalls entered and paſſing up near to their Banners, made their double Reverences together in the Middle of the Choir, and then retired under their Banners.

Who being thus placed, all the other Knights and Proxies by Pairs, or Singly, according to the Method obſerved in the Proceſſion, took their Stations under their Banners, with the like Ceremonies.

Then the Regiſter, in Breaſt, with the Secretary and Gentleman-Uſher, in the ſame Method, who ſtood before their Bench, at the Foot of the Sovereign's Stall.

Garter, the Genealogiſt, and Bath King of Arms did the ſame, and ſtood before their Bench.

The Dean in like Manner ſtood before his Chair.

The great Maſter entered ſingle with the like Obeiſances, and retired under his Banner.

The Proxy of Prince William entered alone in the like Manner.

Prince William, who by the Statutes is declared to be the Firſt and Principal Companion of this Order, and to be placed next to the Sovereign, at this Time came into the Chappel in Perſon, and the Sovereign having been pleaſed in Regard to the Tenderneſs of his Age to diſpence with his Obſervance of all the Rites of this Order, that might give him any Fatigue; he therefore immediately aſcended into his Stall, being inveſted in his Mantle, and Collar, and ſat down their covered.

Bath King of Arms then made his Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and turning himſelf to the Great Maſter, who making his double Reverences in the Choir took his Stall, and there repeated his Obeiſances, and ſat down covered with his white Hat.

Then the Proxy of the Duke of Richmond aſcended into the Stall of his Principal in like Manner, and ſtood there uncovered, holding the Mantle upon his Right Arm.

Then Bath turned himſelf to the two Knights in the next Stalls, who, at the ſame Inſtant, made the like Obeiſances below, and repeated them in their Stalls, and ſat down uncovered.

In like Manner, all the Reſidue of the Companions and Proxies having waited the Seating of thoſe in the upper Stalls, in their Courſes, took their reſpective Stalls, by Pairs, through ſuch Paſſages, as the troubling any Knight in an higher Stall might beſt be avoided.

Which being done, the Eſquires, having made their Reverences in a Body, retired to their Seats, after them the Officers of Arms, and the Officers of the Order, placed themſelves on their Forms with the like Ceremonies. The Provincial Kings of Arms, and the Heralds, according to a Requeſt made to the Great Maſter, were allowed to ſit on Benches in this preſent Ceremony, placed at the Foot of Prince William's Stall, the Purſuivants ſtanding before them.

Bath, and the Gentleman-Uſher forthwith aroſe, made their Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and being followed by the Dean, in like Manner, proceeded towards the Stall of the Great Maſter, who making his Obeiſances in the Middle of the Choir, proceeded to Inſtall the Knights in the following Manner.

The Great Maſter entered into the Stall of the Knight Companion next in Height to his own, and having there given the Proxy of the Duke of Richmond the Tranſcript of the Statutes atteſted under the Seal of the Order, the Dean adminiſtred unto him the Oath in the Name of his Principal, Bath holding the Book of the Goſpels, and the Great Maſter then ſeated the Proxy down in the Stall, who riſing, made his double Reverences, and continued ſtanding holding the Mantle.

The Great Maſter, with the like Attendance, having made his Obeiſances in the Middle of the Choir, then repaired to the Stall of the Duke of Mancheſter, delivering to him the Copy of the Statutes, and the Dean having adminiſtred the Oath, which was of the Tenour following; "You ſhall honour God "above all Things; You ſhall be ſtedfaſt in the "Faith of Chriſt; You ſhall love the King your "Sovereign Lord, and Him, and His Right defend "to your Power; You ſhall defend Maidens, Wi- "dows, and Orphans, in their Rights, and ſhall "ſuffer no Extortion, as far as you may prevent it; "and of as great Honour be this Order unto you, "as ever it was to any of your Progenitors, or "others." Bath then delivered the Collar of the Order to the Great Maſter, who put it about the Neck of the Duke of Mancheſter, and placing the White Hat on his Head, ſeated him down in his Stall, who riſing, made his double Reverences, and the Great Maſter having embraced and congratulated him, he then ſat down in his Stall, covered with his White Hat adorned with Plumes of white Feathers.

The Great Maſter thus proceeded throughout the Reſidue of the Stalls, performing the like Ceremonies to the Knights and Proxies reſpectively.

Which being finiſhed, and the Great Maſter returned to his own Stall, the Dean was conducted to the Altar, and Bath and the Gentleman Uſher being returned to their Benches, which Ceremonies were performed with the due Obeiſances; Divine Service then began: During which Time, the Knights did place their Hats upon the Cuſhions laid before them.

Upon the firſt Sentence of the Offertory, Let your Light ſo ſhine, &c. the Muſick playing, Bath ſtepped from his Bench, made his double Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and coming before the Stall of the Junior Knight, bowed to him, and immediately turned himſelf to the oppoſite Side, bowing to the Knight in that Stall, who aroſe, and making their double Obeiſances both at one Time in their Stalls, deſcended into the Middle of the Choir, where they repeated the ſame, and retired under their Banners. Bath then in like Manner ſummoned the Knights in the next Stalls, and ſo throughout the whole Courſe of Stalls, ſummoning them by Pairs, and the Proxy of the Duke of Richmond ſingle, and then the Great Maſter, and after him Prince William alone, who all of them with the like Ceremonies, placed themſelves under their Banners.

Bath returned to his Bench, and the Provincial Kings of Arms making their Reverences, waited upon Prince William, who upon his going from under his Banner, made his double Obeiſances, and being thus preceeded, made his double Reverences near the Rails of the Altar, and at the Rails, to the Altar only, where kneeling down, his Highneſs made his Offering into the Baſon held by the Dean, aſſiſted by the Prebends. And he repeated the ſame Reverences in his Return, and entered into his Stall, where he again made his double Obeiſances and ſat down.

Bath, King of Arms, then aroſe, and being joined by the eldeſt Herald, in like Manner repaired to the Great Maſter, who carrying his White Hat in his Hand, offered in the ſame Manner, and returned and ſat down in his Stall with the ſame Ceremonies.

And then the Proxy of the Duke of Richmond in the ſame Method, and ſtood in the Stall holding the Mantle.

And afterwards all the Knights, and Proxies in like Manner, wherein this Rule was obſerved, That the Knights and Proxies in the oppoſite Stalls, offered by Pairs together; and the Heralds, according to their Seniorities, took and repeated their Turns in going with Bath King of Arms, before the Knights and Proxies.

Divine Service being ended, the Knights Companions put on their White Hats, and while the Muſick plaid, Bath, King of Arms, ſummoned all the Knights and Proxies to come done from their ſeveral Stalls in the former Method, who all ſtood under their Banners.

Which being done, Prince William was conducted to the Rails of the Altar with the like Ceremonies, as in the former Offering, where the Prince unſheathed his Sword, and offered it himſelf naked to the Dean, and having redeemed it, the Dean returned it with the following Admonition. I exhort and admoniſh you, to uſe your Sword to the Glory of God, the Defence of the Goſpel, the Maintenance of your Sovereign's Right and Honour, and of all Equity and Juſtice, to the utmoſt of your Power. And ſoon afterwards the Prince retired out of the Chappel, leaving Sir Andrew Fontaine to be his Proxy in the Proceſſion for the return to the Chapter-Houſe. Then the Great Maſter covered, after him the Proxy of the Duke of Richmond uncovered, each ſingly, and all other the Knights covered and Proxies uncovered, by Pairs, being reſpectively attended as at the firſt Offering, were conducted to the Rails of the Altar with the uſual Obeiſances, where each Knight and Proxy ſtanding, unſheathed his Sword, and offered it naked to the Dean, who, upon the Redemption of it, reſtored the ſame with the proper Admonitions, according to the Oaths they had taken this Day; and theſe Knights, and Proxies, being all ſeverally reconducted back to the Places under their reſpective Banners, the Alms-men begun the Proceſſion, and were follow'd by all others, having firſt performed their double Obeiſances in the Chappel. And this Proceſſion was made in the ſame Form back to the Chapter Room as in the firſt Proceſſion to the Chappel, except in the following particulars: That at the Outſide of the Weſt Door of the Abbey, the Sovereign's Maſter-Cook, having a Linnen Apron, and a Chopping Knife in his Hand, ſeverally ſaid to each Companion, "Sir, you know what "great Oath you have taken, which if you keep, "it will be great Honour to you; But if you break "it, I ſhall be compelled, by my Office, to hack "off your Spurs from your Heels." And that the Prebendaries had Leave to retire to Jeruſalem Chamber from the Weſt End of the Abbey Church, the Eſquires, Officers of Arms, and of the Order, after they came out of the Church, were allowed to be covered; and at the Door of the Chapter Room, Bath, King of Arms, took the Mantles from the Proxies.

Dinner being ready, the Great Maſter, being preceded by the Officers of the Order, and Garter King of Arms, came into the Court of Requeſts, proceeded down to the lower End thereof, and entered into the Way at the farther Side of the Table, and came up to the Top of it, being followed by all the Knights in Courſe according to the heighth of their Stalls; and when Grace had been ſaid, they all ſat down in that Order, in the ſame Row upon one Side of the Table, each of them having an Eſcutcheon of his Arms and Titles fixed to the Wall over his Seat: The Dean was placed next to the Junior Knight, and the Proxies of the Duke of Richmond and of the Lord Glennorchy, ſat uncovered at the Bottom of the Table.

The Officers of the Order, covered with their Bonnets, ſat at a Table placed oppoſite the Knights Table, towards the lower End of the Room; the Officers of Arms dined at a Table in the Paſſage from the Houſe of Lords to the Houſe of Commons; and the Prebendaries in Jeruſalem Chamber.

The Eſquires having for ſome time attended behind their reſpective Knights, had Leave given them to retire to their Dinner in the Painted Chamber, who went thither in their Courſes, where they dined.

At the Second Courſe, Bath, King of Arms aroſe, and the Muſick ceaſing, made his Reverence in the middle of the Room, and there according to the Command given him, proclaimed the Style of Prince William, the Firſt, and Principal Companion of this moſt Honourable Order, who is always to be placed next to the Sovereign; and then coming up near to the Great-Maſter, who ſtood up uncovered, while Bath proclaimed his Styles; and the Great Maſter then ſitting down, the Style of each Companion preſent, in the like Manner was reſpectively proclaimed, at which ſome Heralds and Purſuivants attended.

The whole Ceremony was performed with great Regularity, Magnificence, and Splendour.
